STAT

Mr. Fritz E. Oppenheimer

Dear Mr. Oppenheimer:

Thanks for your letter of February 5th enclosing the advertising circular from Hoffman Und Campe Verlag. This is a rather surprising and amusing association, but of course an author is given no choice in such matters-- this is equally true in Dr. Neissner's case. What disturbs me now is the thought as to just who the Tokyo booksellers will choose as my running mate to push the sales of the recent Japanese edition.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

W B Smith
